

DNED 701: NURSE ANESTHESIA EDUCATOR PRACTICUM

I

This course provides students opportunities to participate in mentored experiences in Nursing education and explore the role of the nurse anesthesia educator. Students will be introduced to theories and concepts in curriculum development, evaluation, various teaching strategies, and assessment of student learning in diverse teaching/learning environments with a focus on nurse education. Students will create and implement a personalized practicum experience under the supervision of faculty/preceptors in various teaching/learning environments.

Credits: 1.00

Faculty: Hallie Evans, DNP, CRNA, APRN